The Great English Spiritualist Will

The great spiritualist will case of Lyon vs. Home, was opened before Nice Chancel for Giffard, in London, on the 23d of April. The plaintiff, Mrs. Lyon, is a widow, about 70 years of age, who seeks to recover money and securities to the value of sixty thosand pounds sterling, which, she alleges, were improperly obtained from her by the defendant, Mr. Home the well known spiritualist. Mrs. Lyon testi fied that she had no attachment whatever to Mr. Home; that her intimate relations with him were due simply to "the power he had of bringing her into conversation with her dead husband d'isthat latcher first sinterview Awith Home her husband's spirit had communicated with her through the mediumship of Home, fellowes, the spirit "had knotted her handkerchief, and that at a subsequent interview "the spirit, with Home's assistance, communicated the tidings, 'I love Daniel,' meaning presumably, Mr. Home "he is to be your son, he is my son, therefore yours. I The table then lecstatically kieled aup dits elege and the spirit

According to the report the defendant Home further thformed her that she should adopt him as her son, that a friend of Home's named Hall; should be sent for, and that she should produce stock receipts for the sun of about twenty four thousand pounds ou Under the influence, as Mrs. Lyon alleges, of Home's spiritual powers and ascendancy, she went, on the little of October, 1866, to the Bank of England and there transferred the sum of twenty four thousand pounds stock to Home. Shortly after this Home, at another interview, assured her that it was the spirit's will that she should destroy her existing will and make another will, bequeathing everything she possessed to Home. The will to this effect was soon afterwards prepared for the defendant, and was executed by the plaintiff. .: Further sums of money were at-The plaintiff's property is said to be worth mitted. Int. Mrs. Lyon said in the course of her cross examination :- "Can't tell when my eyes were first opened always dishked the deed by which I was made an annuitant. My husband would never have made me an annuitant under a spiritual adventurer. I disliked it from the first. b My spirits were always reminding me that I must execute that deeds That was the first point that opened my eyes. Another point I disliked was that Daniel told me I was not to go to other mediums. Mrs. Lyon gave the date when, as she said, Daniel denied that the spirits had anything to do with my giving him the money. Whe added, "He denied there had been any manifestations durmertgage security), that the recitels that the justice so urgently demand. thirty thousand pounds were "transferred" to Home, "of her own free will and pleasure only, and without any influence, control or interference of the said Home or of any other person, and again that the settlement, is absolute and irrevocable, and shall in, no wise be disputed or controverted by her heirs, excutors or ad ministrators," were fraught with suspicion and showed conclusively that Home well knew st that time the transportion would be easter be impeached and had the instruments framed so as to meet the anticipated objections.

favor of Home, and the evidence in behalf of the defendant, consisting of thirty-seven affidavits extending over seventy-three folio pages, was put in and read Mr. Matthews seems to have relied mainly for the defence upon Mr. Home's affirmation-'I do not profess, and never did protess, to have the power of evoking the spirits of deceased persons or of putting other persons in communication with them; what occurs is without any volition whatever of my own;" and upon the assertion that "up to detendant's connection with the plaintiff he had not made one single sixpence by his spiritund belief." Spiritually blind as outsiders may be, they will find it difficult either to contradict the orthodoxy of the affirmation by the great master of spiritualism," or to see any miraculous virtue in his forbearing to make a single sixpence until he secured a chance to make sixty thousand pounds sterling by his spiritual Arrived, per schooner John Rowletleileden

Compared with this clever and stapendous operation all previous picayunish cases of making sixpences. By spiritual benef, on the part of oither sisters or brothers of table tipping tilting and rapping families sink into utten in significance. Whatever may be the decision of Vice-Chancellot Giffard in this extraordina-West will easy to foresee the popular verdict. N. Y. Herald. OF ON

This great work presents the only complete and impartial analysis of the Causes of the YOUNG MEN Especially, who have become the victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an ultimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most excellent talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Sensto:s with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to estacy the living lyre, may call with full

ORGANIC WEAKNESS Immediately cured and full vigor restored This distressing affection, which renders miserable and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of impropriety. Young persons are too apt to commit cesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The System becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritabili-gestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Consumption, Decay and Death. DR. JOHNSON, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and part of whose life has been spent in the hospit-als of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonish ing cures that were ever known, many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, at-

were cured immediately. TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and selitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, socie-

tended sometimes with derangement of mind

ty or marriage. These are some of the sad and melanchely effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Averson to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emacated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption. YOUNG MEN,

Who have injured themselves by a cer tain practice, indulged in, a habit fre quently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and, if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately. What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemreflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prosp ct hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with your own, DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those, who from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin-bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns."

It is a MELANOHOLY FACT that thou sands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing
